

JENNIFER DAIGLE

412 Elm Creek Drive, McKinney, TX 75071
Email: jennifer.daigle@msn.com Phone: 214-856-5416

EXPERIENCE

Moses, Palmer & Howell, L.L.P., Fort Worth, TX 2018 – Present
Of Counsel

Title attorney helping clients in the exploration and production of oil and gas by ensuring marketability of title

- Examine and interpret title abstracts and related documents to determine surface and mineral ownership
- Prepare oil and gas drilling title opinions covering lands in various different oil and gas formations

Jennifer Daigle, Attorney at Law, McKinney, TX 2012 – 2018
Estate planning attorney

Solo practitioner helping individuals and families prepare their wills, trusts and estate plans.

- Informed and advised clients on Texas laws relating estates, trusts and probate, as well as ownership of property, intestacy, and other related matters
- Drafted estate planning documents, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and directives
- Ensured that all aspects of a client's estate were accounted for and updated, including beneficiaries on bank and other financial accounts, insurance policies and more

Burnett and Thomason, Frisco, TX 2010 – 2012
Of Counsel

Summarized title issues for oil and gas companies operating in the Barnett Shale.

- Examined and interpreted all manner of legal documents pertaining to oil, gas, coal and mineral ownership, including abstracts of titles, leases, contracts and publicly recorded documents
- Prepared original and supplemental drilling title opinions with chains of title for easy conceptualization of property ownership
- Developed extensive knowledge of Texas oil and gas law, title examination standards, Texas intestacy laws and other relevant statutes to determine surface and mineral ownership

Criminal District Court No. 1, Fort Worth, TX 2010
Briefing Attorney

Served as the personal research attorney to the Honorable Judge Sharen Wilson.

- Conducted legal research on issues presented to the Court and prepared memoranda and briefs
- Drafted and reviewed academic papers for presentation at the National Judicial College
- Performed administrative bailiff duties as required by the Judge

Office of Judicial Staff Counsel, Fort Worth, TX 2010
Staff Attorney-Intern

Served all ten criminal district court judges of Tarrant County through the Office of Judicial Staff Counsel working primarily on writs of habeas corpus and researching questions of law

- Reviewed habeas corpus writs and drafted findings of fact and conclusions of law
- Presented recommendations to the Judges as to the disposition of writ applications

EDUCATION

Texas Wesleyan School of Law, J.D., May 2009

Awards: received Dean's Scholarship all three years, recipient of Texas Wesleyan Law Fellowship, admitted into the National Order of Barristers

Activities: member and vice president of Phi Delta Phi, moot court participant and 2008 Gibbons National Criminal Procedure Moot Court National Champion

Texas Tech University, B.A., December 2005

Member State Bar of Texas